

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

William McGovern Addresses Key Considerations for Internal Investigations in China

January 24, 2017

William McGovern discussed the challenges practitioners may face when conducting internal investigations in China and the corresponding solutions at the Internal Investigations and Document Discovery in China conference at Fordham Law School. The panel focused on how to avoid legal, financial, and ethical problems during discovery and the impact of Chinese laws and regulations on the investigation.

Internal Investigations and Document Discovery in China

Tuesday, January 24, 2017

6 pm–9 pm

Fordham Law School

150 W. 62nd Street

New York, NY 10023