

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

William McGovern Discusses Regulatory Challenges for High Net Worth Individuals with Global Business Interests

March 7, 2019

On March 7th, Kobre & Kim's William McGovern utilized his experience in cross-border government enforcement defense to examine the challenges that arise for high-net-worth individuals with global business interests subject to investigation by international authorities.

During a panel discussion at Cambridge Forum's Global Forum on Corporate Criminal Liability in Chantilly, France, McGovern, alongside fellow experts, examined defensive and offensive strategies designed to protect clients from threats to their liberty, assets and reputation.