

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

William McGovern Presents at U.S.-China Legal Summit

March 2, 2015

William McGovern and fellow panelists discussed the complexities of strategically navigating cross-border disputes and the current global regulatory climate at the U.S.-China Legal Summit presented by The American Lawyer and The Asian Lawyer. During the discussion, the panelists evaluated key factors companies should consider when it comes to the exposure to, and the handling of, cross-border disputes and regulatory enforcement.