

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Zachary Rosenbaum on LMEs: Past, Present, & Future at Wharton Restructuring and Distressed Investing Conference 2025

February 18, 2025

Kobre & Kim's Zachary Rosenbaum will be speaking at the Wharton Restructuring and Distressed Investing Conference 2025 on February 21 in New York.

Mr. Rosenbaum will join fellow experts on the "LMEs: Past, Present, & Future" panel to discuss how liability management transactions have evolved over time, the current factors impacting transaction structures and the lending market, and what opportunities and challenges stressed/distressed companies and their stakeholders may face in 2025 and beyond.

Click here to register.