

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Andrew Stafford KC discusses the impact of Brexit on judgements within the EU with Law 360

January 30, 2019

Publication: Law 360

Kobre & Kim attorney Andrew Stafford KC discussed the potential complications of judgment enforcement within Europe arising from the current state of Brexit with Law 360. Housed within EU regulations is the streamlining of judicial processes, and the impact of Brexit provides many unknowns. Stafford explains:

“But with the uncertainty posed by a yet-unknown deal, this process has been put in jeopardy. If current frameworks are not maintained, judgment creditors would need to navigate the domestic rules of member states.”

Read the full article here (subscription required).