

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Human Rights First Pro Bono Stars

June 27, 2018

HRF Award Photo

Kobre & Kim would like to congratulate Kelly Spatola on being selected as one of Human Rights First 2018 Pro Bono Stars. Kelly, along with Steven Perlstein, Gabriela Barreto, Melisa González, Tara Roy, and Robert Locke, have been helping a Honduran domestic abuse victim gain asylum in the U.S. In addition to providing outstanding legal counsel, the team has also been working with a Human Rights First social worker to ensure that the client and her eldest son receive counseling for the abuse they suffered, and have conducted clothing drives and collected other essential items for the family.