

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Explains How Litigation Funds Support Israeli Tech Companies Facing Lawsuits from MNCs

November 8, 2018

Publication: News1

A team of Kobre & Kim attorneys – Michael Rosen, Robert Henoch, and Will Rosenzweig – shed light on the benefits litigation funding tools present for innovative Israeli companies facing court disputes with MNCs. “Israeli technology companies from various sectors, especially small and medium-sized companies, are suffering from a lack of resources and the lack of security needed to initiate legal proceedings against multinational corporations, with an emphasis on overseas legal instances,” the team explains.

Litigation funds offer a solution by providing the critical funds needed for costly legal proceedings in exchange for a small percentage of the award in favor of the plaintiff. (There is no cost if they lose.)

Read the full article \(originally written in Hebrew\) here.