

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim is Honored to Sponsor the AABANY 2017 Annual Dinner

January 31, 2017

Kobre & Kim is sponsoring the Asian American Bar Association of New York's Annual Dinner on February 22 in New York. As one of the signature events in the Asian Pacific legal community, the reception will bring together over 800 attorneys, judges, corporations and professional organizations for a night of celebration and forward thinking.

AABANY is a not-for-profit corporation that brings together New York Asian-American lawyers, judges, law professors, legal professionals, legal assistants, paralegals and law students. AABANY's mission is to improve the study and practice of law, and the fair administration of justice for all by ensuring the meaningful participation of Asian-Americans in the legal profession.