

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Obtains Exceptional Result for Graduate Student Accused of Breaching Security at Newark Airport

March 9, 2010

Publication: The American Lawyer

Kobre & Kim achieved an exceptional result for Haisong Jiang, a Chinese Ph.D student at Rutgers University in New Jersey, who was charged with breaching security at Newark Liberty International Airport on January 3, 2010. Kobre & Kim represented Mr. Jiang against criminal charges brought in Newark Municipal Court and in connection with an investigation by the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). Kobre & Kim's representation resulted in Mr. Jiang avoiding jail time altogether.