

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Represents Former KBR Employee in FCPA Prosecution

March 5, 2009

Publication: Bloomberg

Kobre & Kim represents a private client in connection with a federal investigation regarding an alleged scheme to bribe Nigerian government officials to obtain engineering, procurement, and construction (EPC) contracts. The EPC contracts to build liquefied natural gas (LNG) facilities on Bonny Island, Nigeria, were valued at US $6 billion+.