

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Represents Two Individuals in the Largest FCPA Prosecution of Individuals

January 19, 2010

Publication: The Wall Street Journal

Kobre & Kim represents two defendants in a case against 22 executives and employees of military and law enforcement supply companies brought under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). The charges are the result of the first-ever and highly publicized sting operation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) to uncover alleged violations of the FCPA.