

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Who's Who Legal Recognizes Fourteen Kobre & Kim Lawyers as Leading Practitioners in Asset Recovery

April 16, 2020

Publication: Who's Who Legal

We are proud to announce that Who's Who Legal, in a global ranking of practitioners, has recognized fourteen Kobre & Kim lawyers as Leading Practitioners in its recently published analysis of the asset recovery practice area for 2020.

These lawyers, spanning multiple offices and jurisdictions, are Michael Kim, Robert Henoch, Jef Klazen, David McGill, Andrew Stafford KC, Carrie Tendler, Randall Arthur, Robin Baik, Timothy de Swardt, Andrew Lourie, Jalil Asif KC, Rebecca Hume, Ulrich Payne and Peter Tyers-Smith.

In particular, founding partner Michael Kim was recognized as a Global Elite Thought Leader in Asset Recovery, a distinction he received last year as well.

Who's Who Legal conducts extensive research into each of the practice areas they focus on in order to pick out the leading experts in each field. They conduct interviews of clients and practitioners from around the world, obtaining recommendations from people such as private practice and in-house lawyers, arbitrators, judges, consulting experts and academics.

Click here for the full rankings.