

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Jef Klazen Examines Enforceability at the Forum on International Enforcement of Judgments & Awards

June 9, 2017

Jef Klazen will review the factors affecting the enforceability of a judgment or award, and how those factors help determine the risk-adjusted value June 12 at the Cambridge Forum on International Enforcement of Judgments & Awards.

The panel, titled "Preliminary Assessment of Enforceability," will focus on contractual dispute-resolution provisions, the differences between enforcement of judgments and arbitration awards, the impact on worldwide enforcement, and how asset locations can guide your overall strategy.

For more information on this event, please click here.