

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Analyzes the Landscape of Asset Recovery in Hong Kong

October 26, 2015

Publication: The Asset Tracing and Recovery Review

Hong Kong-based lawyers Randall Arthur and Calvin Koo co-authored a chapter in the third edition of The Asset Tracing and Recovery Review. The piece provides a comprehensive overview of tracing and recovering assets in Hong Kong, including an update on recent developments and an analysis of key legal considerations.

Please click here to view the chapter, or email inquiries@kobrekim.com if you would like to receive a full version of the third edition of The Asset Tracing and Recovery Review.