

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Cayman Lawyers Discuss Enforcement of Judgments and Arbitral Awards

December 28, 2015

Publication: Enforcement of Judgments and Arbitral Awards in Commercial Matters Global Guide

Offshore litigation lawyers James Corbett QC and Jalil Asif QC contributed to the Cayman Islands chapter of Enforcement of Judgments and Arbitral Awards in Commercial Matters Global Guide. The chapters provide an overview of the key practical issues related to the enforcement of judgments and arbitral awards in the jurisdiction. In Q&A format, each chapter addresses topics such as definitions and preliminary proceedings, applicable regulations or conventions, enforcement proceedings, and formalities and reform proposals.

Access the chapter on the enforcement of judgments here and the chapter on the enforcement of arbitral awards here.