

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Shaun Wu on Compliance for China-based Corporations at Shanghai In-House Legal Summit

June 20, 2019

On June 20, Kobre & Kim lawyer Shaun Wu moderated a panel discussion on internal investigations and compliance at this year's Asian Legal Business (ALB) Shanghai In-House Legal Summit. Based in Shanghai, with an experienced background in internal investigations involving U.S. and Chinese entities, Mr. Wu will bring his industry insights to lead this alongside general counsel and chief compliance officers from China-based corporations.

The panel, titled "Managing Investigations for Anti-Bribery and Corruption Risks," will provide attending in-house counsels and business leaders with an analysis of how corporations operating in China manage compliance risks today, while also giving practical guidelines for conducting investigations within the East Asian country.