

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

William F. McGovern Recognized as Top Anti-Corruption Lawyer by Chambers Asia-Pacific

February 28, 2013

Publication: Chambers Asia-Pacific

Head of Kobre & Kim's Hong Kong office William McGovern has been recognized for his outstanding work in Dispute Resolution: Anti-Corruption by Chambers Asia-Pacific. Mr. McGovern was lauded as "an efficient, highly intelligent and solution-oriented practitioner" who is known among his clients as "calm and collected."

Mr. McGovern, a former U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) enforcement lawyer, regularly represents private and institutional clients. Support includes providing advice and counsel on U.S. government investigations into allegations concerning securities law violations, antitrust, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), money laundering, corporate accounting fraud, and various other laws with international applications. In addition, Mr. McGovern often conducts confidential internal investigations on behalf of executive boards and committees of international public and private companies.

Mr. McGovern led Kobre & Kim's Hong Kong office launch in 2010 and has successfully built a practice around delivering trusted advice and counsel to clients.