Anna de Bernardi, under the supervision of the firm's lawyers, provides specialized support on matters involving international judgment enforcement and creditor-debtor disputes, with a focus on identifying assets and providing defense and recovery strategies for individuals, companies and sovereign entities.

Recently, Ms. de Bernardi supported the firm's lawyers in efforts to identify a target's offshore assets and create a preliminary monetization strategy for the enforcement of a multi-billion-dollar settlement. Additionally, she assisted in global asset tracing investigations to inform strategic advice to clients facing criminal forfeiture.

Ms. de Bernardi received her BA from Princeton University.
