Darryl Stein helps companies and individuals find solutions to complex commercial and financial situations arising from litigations, arbitrations and investigations, with a focus on cross-border matters involving judgment enforcement, financial products and insolvency. In these matters, he has represented financial services, technology and energy industry clients before U.S. and non-U.S. courts, tribunals and enforcement authorities. He also has particular experience in matters involving distressed companies in insolvency and judgment enforcement situations. Mr. Stein also works with lawyers throughout the firm's global offices to help clients obtain or oppose fact-gathering efforts in U.S. Courts under Section 1782.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Stein practiced at Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP.
