Elina Karayianni is a Disputes Manager for Kobre & Kim Business Advisors in Cyprus. A fluent Greek speaker, she helps deliver the firm's business strategy in Cyprus, providing strategic support on legal and commercial issues to Kobre & Kim's clients and lawyers on issues with a nexus to Cyprus and the broader surrounding region.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Ms. Karayianni worked at a private family office providing services to a select group of high-net-worth individuals and their family members, where she handled accounting and reporting functions, as well as the implementation and coordination of restructuring plans and other projects. She is also certified as an AML Compliance officer by the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC). Before that, she worked at PwC in the International Private Client Department. Ms. Karayianni is FCA qualified.
