Genna L. Sinel represents individuals and entities in internal investigations, government enforcement actions and complex commercial litigation. She defends clients against allegations of fraud, corruption and other misconduct brought by the U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, and other regulatory and enforcement agencies. She has experience in white-collar criminal cases, employment law and immigration proceedings.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Ms. Sinel practiced at Jones Day, focusing on appeals, commercial litigation and white-collar criminal investigations. She served as a law clerk for the Honorable Robert J. Luck of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit from 2021 to 2022, and for the Honorable Francisco A. Besosa of the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico from 2017 to 2019.
