Henry Cheung has extensive experience representing clients in shareholder and joint venture disputes and commercial fraud matters. Mr. Cheung is familiar with urgent injunctive relief, freezing/gagging applications, as well as the enforcement of foreign/PRC judgment and arbitral awards in Hong Kong.

Mr. Cheung also represents institutional clients in matters involving international judgment enforcement, often with a nexus to the Asia-Pacific region. He also helps clients respond to high value fraud and regulatory investigations, as well as investigate or defend against allegations of fraud and misconduct, including cyber fraud, accounting fraud, diversion of business, fraudulent misrepresentation, conspiracy of defraud and others.

Furthermore, Mr. Cheung is well-versed in dealing with complex and multi-jurisdictional insolvency matters. He has rich experience dealing with winding up proceedings, asset tracing and recovery. He also maintains practice in general commercial litigation and arbitration, including on contractual dispute, breach of trust and fiduciary duties, professional negligence, intellectual property disputes, defamations, etc.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Cheung practiced in King & Wood Mallesons as well as Fairbairn Catley Low & Kong.
