Jeffrey Ho represents corporations, funds and other institutional clients in complex cross-border disputes and litigation with a nexus to the Asia Pacific region, often involving fraud and misconduct. He dilutes and defends against multi-million dollar claims and allegations of fraud on behalf of global clients and coordinates government investigations to defend client assets and interests.

Mr. Ho also has significant experience in shareholder and other corporate disputes, enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards, as well as proceedings related to offshore liquidation, winding up and other insolvency litigation and disputes.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Ho practiced at King & Wood Mallesons and Dentons Hong Kong, where he focused on cross-border litigation and regulatory investigations.
