M Moore represents individuals and corporate clients in commercial disputes, investigations and regulatory matters. His experience spans high-stakes contract disputes, SEC and CFTC investigations, healthcare-related litigation, legal malpractice claims and ERISA actions. He also has experience working on a monitor team in a matter involving market manipulation by a global financial institution. He handles all stages of litigation, including motion practice, discovery, witness interviews, depositions and settlement negotiations.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Moore practiced at Zuckerman Spaeder LLP, where he represented individual and corporate clients in complex commercial disputes, criminal prosecutions and high-stakes investigations. Prior to that, he practiced at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, where he worked on antitrust litigation and other complex disputes.

Mr. Moore also served as a law clerk to the Honorable T.S. Ellis III of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia and the Honorable Mary Beck Briscoe of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit.
