

Mark Rowlands

Lawyer

BVI

Commerce House, Waterfront
Drive
Road Town, Tortola VG 1110
British Virgin Islands
+1 284 852 1604

mark.rowlands@kobrekim.com

Mark Rowlands represents clients in complex commercial litigation, with focuses on international judgment enforcement and insolvency. He advises clients on matters that involve both onshore and offshore jurisdictions, including arbitration awards, asset recovery and debtor-creditor disputes. Mr. Rowlands has experience in all phases of litigation including client counseling, drafting statements and applications, negotiating settlements and trial advocacy.

Prior to joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Rowlands practiced at Harney Westwood & Riegels, where he handled a wide range of litigation including arbitration, restructuring, complex contentious trusts, fraud and asset recovery. Before that, he practiced as an independent barrister at the chambers of Geoffrey Cox QC, the Attorney General of England and Wales, specializing in commercial chancery, insolvency and property law.

Admissions

- Barrister, Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (British Virgin Islands)
- Barrister, England and Wales

Education

- University College London, LLM
- University of Law, LLB
- University of Nottingham, BA and MA

Professional & Community Involvement

- Chancery Bar Association, Member
- Commercial Bar Association, Member
- BVI Bar Association, Member

Publications & Presentations

- Speaker, "The Politics of Cooperation: An Introduction to the Issues in Cross-border Insolvency Law" (University of Mauritius and University of Central Lancashire, Mauritius, February 2015)