Michelle Li is a litigator who focuses her practice on commercial proceedings, including shareholder and joint venture disputes, contractual disputes, land disputes, defamation, and employment disputes. Ms. Li has experience representing high-net-worth individuals and institutional clients in cross-border litigation and arbitration, including the enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards.

In addition to her litigation practice, Ms. Li advises on regulatory proceedings and investigations, helping clients navigate complex regulatory environments and mitigate risks associated with enforcement actions.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Ms. Li practiced at Deacons in Hong Kong.
