Mungo Lowe is admitted as a barrister in England and the BVI and focuses his practice on high-stakes, cross-border disputes involving complex and high-value asset recovery and insolvency litigation. He advises international clients on matters that involve both onshore and offshore jurisdictions, including shareholder disputes, fraud and trusts-related litigation and company law including distressed investment funds. Mr. Lowe has deep experience with British Virgin Islands (BVI) company, insolvency and related regulatory legislation, particularly with BVI elements of international insolvencies and restructurings, and frequently appears as an advocate in the BVI Commercial Court and Court of Appeal.

Prior to joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Lowe practiced at other leading offshore firms in the BVI and London, and at the Chancery/Commercial Bar in Lincoln's Inn, London.
