

Nicholas Ickovic

Lawyer

SAN FRANCISCO

150 California Street, 19th
Floor
San Francisco, California 94111
+1 415 582 4756

nicholas.ickovic@kobrekim.com

Nicholas Ickovic is an experienced commercial litigator focused on representing institutional and individual clients in complex cross-border disputes involving financial products and services. He has experience in matters dealing with debt and equity securities issuances, contract disputes and shareholder disputes. Mr. Ickovic also handles insolvency disputes and restructuring actions in bankruptcy court.

Before joining Kobre & Kim, Mr. Ickovic practiced at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, where he focused on commercial litigation.

Admissions

- California
- New York
- U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California
- United States District Court for the Central District of California
- United States District Court for the Southern District of New York
- United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York

Education

- Columbia Law School, JD, Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar
- Carleton College, BA, magna cum laude

Publications & Presentations

- Co-author, "Securities Litigation in the U.S.A." (Lexology, January 2019)