Sally Na focuses on government enforcement defense matters and cross-border litigation involving international private clients. Ms. Na has extensive experience working on issues related to political corruption and asset forfeiture, including the representation of two high-profile businessmen in implementing defensive strategies with respect to sovereign-driven asset confiscation, extradition, investigations by the U.S. Department of Justice, and INTERPOL notices. She has also provided support in the firm's representation of a fund manager in an investor-state dispute arbitration against the Republic of Korea.

Ms. Na received her AB from Harvard University.
