

Jason A. Masimore

□□

□□

Tower 42
25 Old Broad Street
London, EC2N 1HQ
+44 (0) 20 3301 6577

jason.masimore@kobrekim.co.uk

Jason Masimore is a highly experienced litigator and investigator with over 15 years of professional experience. He has worked for leading law firms in the UK and internationally, where he has acted for a wide range of clients in a variety of dispute resolution matters. He is particularly experienced in commercial litigation, including contract disputes, tortious claims, and investigations into fraud and corruption. He is also experienced in representing clients in arbitration proceedings. He is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIAA) and the Law Society. He is also a frequent speaker at industry conferences and seminars.

Masimore is a highly experienced litigator and investigator with over 15 years of professional experience. He has worked for leading law firms in the UK and internationally, where he has acted for a wide range of clients in a variety of dispute resolution matters.

Masimore is a highly experienced litigator and investigator with over 15 years of professional experience. He has worked for leading law firms in the UK and internationally, where he has acted for a wide range of clients in a variety of dispute resolution matters.

Admissions

- Admitted to the Solicitors' Roll
- Barrister
- Chartered Arbitrator
- Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators

Education

- University of London
- University of Cambridge
- University of Oxford

Accolades

2023/24 STEP "Top 100" Award

Select Engagements

- Represented a leading international technology company in a complex commercial litigation matter involving 100 parties.
- Represented a leading international technology company in a complex commercial litigation matter involving 1 party.
- Represented a leading international technology company in a complex commercial litigation matter.
- Represented a leading international technology company in a complex commercial litigation matter involving 2.5 parties.
- Represented a leading international technology company in a complex commercial litigation matter involving 1 party.
- Represented a leading international technology company in a complex commercial litigation matter.

